4. PRESENTATIONS

A. King & King Architects - Building Condition Survey Update

Architects from King & King gave a Power Point presentation of projects for each building organized by priority. The campus-wide project includes roof work, windows, building security, code compliance upgrades, field work, resurfacing of the all-weather track, energy efficient upgrades, and parking lot resurfacing and/or replacing. Also included is the removal of the metal building housing the District Office and relocating that office to existing space in the Middle School. The Building Project will be put to a vote in May 2015. Pending voter approval, the architects hope to have the project complete by the end of summer 2017.

5. COMMITTEE REPORTS

A. Audit Finance Committee Report

Mr. Liddle informed Board Members that the Audit Finance Committee met on March 2, 2015 to review the initial draft budget for the 2015-2016 school year. The budget planning is still in process, but early indications suggest a reasonable $235,000 budget gap. Staffing and class sizes will be reviewed. Of note, is a decrease in the Teacher's Retirement System premiums. Mr. Liddle stated that the District hopes to decrease the tax levy by a possible 1%. He informed Board Members that the budget looks favorable and includes all of our current programming.
